

TWENTY WORKMEN BURIED UNDER TONS OF DEBRIS IN SUBWAY

New York, June 23.—Nearly half a block of sidewalk and superstructure over a Brooklyn subway caved in today, burying more than 20 workmen, killing one and injuring six. A wagon and team fell into the chasm and one of the animals was killed. Many tons of debris filled the excavation and firemen and policemen had to dig out the injured. It was one of the worst accidents that ever occurred in New York subway construction. The superintendent and foremen of the work have been arrested pending an investigation.

Shocking sights attended the work of rescue.

The crushing force of the slide tore arms from the sockets of workmen and twisted bodies completely out of shape. The spine of one of the first corpses recovered was warped and broken.

A wagon load of sand was standing upon the superstructure at the time of the accident, and fell into the chasm crushing workmen who were caught beneath it.

The victims of the accident were at work under the sidewalk on both sides of the street when the structure gave way allowing tons of earth and building material to fall. A huge steam derrick weighing at least ten tons was carried to the bottom of the excavation. The first warning of the disaster was a mighty rippling noise of breaking timber.

Immediately afterwards an immense load of earth, stones and concrete shot downward, the muffled screams of pain and fright came up from the workmen.

Immediately after the accident an investigation was begun to determine the cause. It is believed that some of the supports were weakened by recent rains. Police reserves kept back the crowds that impeded the work of the rescue squad.

The first three dead were crushed by the steam derrick.

Matthew Larkin, a nearby resident, who was aroused by the crash, was one of the first to reach the scene. He volunteered his services in relief work.

"It was the most horrible experience in my life," said Larkin. "After the roar of the crash had died away I could hear faint cries coming up through the mass of wreckage from the poor fellows underneath. Some called for help and others shrieked wild prayers. At first I could not believe my ears when the pitious moans sifted up through the wreckage."

Farmers Impress Aid Of Town Folks

Hale, Kan., June 23.—Hale is almost a deserted village today. A delegation of farmers came in to town lamenting that harvest had been ruined. The East had kept work on account of the heat. "We need help quick, and you fellows must help us," said the leader of the delegation. Half an hour later the town market place was filled with farmers, ready to help.

"Shaves and haircuts on Saturday only," the doors of the barbershops were locked and officials donned their old clothes and made for the wheat fields. Merchants turned their stores over to women clerks and lawyers forgot their fees. Editors placed their wives in charge of the "shop."

Loss of the harvest would paralyze the town's business.

Wanamaker Favors Recognition Of The Labor Organizations

Philadelphia, Pa., June 23.—"It is an insane thing to try to regulate the relations of labor," said Wanamaker today in giving testimony before the House committee on industrial relations. He made this statement in reply to a question as to whether employers should recognize labor.

He said that labor and capital have the right to organize, but that he does not believe that labor and capital should be recognized as equal.

TRADE STAGNATION IS NOW PASSING

Washington, June 23.—The United States was the last of the nations to enter world wide depression, felt it least and is now emerging first. This was the way Secretary of Commerce Redfield sized up the situation in a statement today. He did not assert there has been any depression but he declared that what there had been, was only our share of universal trade stagnation. Redfield says reports of increased business and prosperity letters are pouring into his office every day, which indicate that a big commercial and industrial revival is close at hand—in fact very much in evidence now.

Redfield says the Rock Island railroad reported out 1000 more cars for the first week in June than heretofore. Reports are also coming in of large purchases in dry goods. This prosperity is attributed, Redfield thinks, to the bumper wheat crops and many other stimulations.

DELEGATE DIES

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—Chas. L. Declair, 49, Cleveland delegate to the convention of the Knights of John, died here from the effects of the heat early today at the Grand hotel. He was stricken soon after his arrival here Monday. He was lieutenant of the Cleveland uniform regiment, but was unable to march in the parade Monday night.

Hamburg, Germany, June 23.—The North German Lloyd steamer Koenig Louise and the German passenger steamer Cobra were in collision today. Both were damaged. The passengers were landed safely. The Cobra was crowded with sightseers to witness a yacht race at the mouth of the Elva river. The Hamburg liner tore a great hole in the Cobra's hull and caused a panic which nearly proved fatal to many. Scores of passengers swarmed over the boat's side and clamored for safety over the bulwark of the liner.

TRAIN HITS AUTO AND 3 ARE KILLED

Greenville, Mich., June 23.—Three are dead and one is fatally injured as a result of an auto being struck by a Pierre Marquette train today at Hales Crossing, one mile north of here.

The dead are: Mrs. B. B. Merritt, 80; Mrs. R. M. Beardsley, 45; and June R. Beardsley, 20; fatally injured, Mrs. C. C. Larke, daughter of Mrs. Merritt, who was driver of the car.

The engine stalled on the grade crossing and Mrs. H. N. Clements, another member of the party, was the only one who escaped injury. She jumped from the car just in time to save herself.

Court Is Guarded

Dillonville, O., June 23.—Following alleged threats that sympathizers of Joseph E. Ror, I. W. W. agitator, would attempt by force to rescue Etor if he is held to the grand jury for inciting a riot among striking miners here, Sheriff Hubert swore in a dozen extra deputies for duty at the courthouse. Etor, doubtless, will be held to the grand jury, it is said, and trouble is sure to come.

REVOLUTION IN HAITI

Washington, June 23.—Reports were laid before the cabinet meeting today showing that revolutionary conditions in Haiti were serious and that no immediate settlement was in sight. The possibility of the United States intervening and seeking to bring about peace and the payments of debts was discussed but nothing definite was done.

SCALE MEN DISAGREE

Columbus, O., June 23.—The sub-scale committee of the miners and operators at a session which adjourned this afternoon failed to reach an agreement. They will report the disagreement to the joint scale committee at 2:30 this afternoon, according to a statement given out at headquarters by John Moore, president of the Ohio Miners. Moore was a member of the sub-committee. While Moore would make no predictions others said the committee would hear the report of the committee and then adjourn.

SAFE BLOWN

Charleston, W. Va., June 23.—A large number of persons in the C. & O. station here last night heard an explosion but it was not loud, and no one investigated. This morning it was discovered that robbers had blown the safe in the office express company nearby and escaped with $500 in cash.

CAPT. HAAS DEAD

Shamokin, Pa., June 23.—Capt. James W. Haas, commander of the 98th Pennsylvania volunteers during the civil war, died here today. Following the assassination of President Lincoln, Haas, who bore a striking resemblance to J. Wilkes Booth, while on his way to the Clearfield oil region in Pennsylvania, was arrested, and troops had difficulty in preventing a mob from lynching him.

FRICITION BETWEEN AMERICAN AND HUERTA SOLDIERS IS ACUTE

Veracruz, Mex., June 23.—Friction between outposts of the Americans and the Mexican command which holds the passes toward Mexico City, which has been increasing of late, became acute today when efforts were made to learn something of the fate of a missing American marine who disappeared off post. Surmises that the missing man, whose name the commanding officer refuses to give, disappeared in the same manner as did Private Samuel Parks some weeks ago, caused great apprehension here. The Americans have shouted questions across the line to the federal soldiers asking for information as to the fate of the marine. All the reply they got was jeers. Orders have been given that the Americans may not be the aggressors, if a clash comes.

Up to a few days ago the relations between the outposts have been friendly; in the last week, however, a steadily growing feeling of hostility has been manifested from Huerta's soldiers. Killing of goods of foreigners coming from Mexico City to Veracruz was the first unfriendly act of the Huerta soldiers.

In case no trace is found of the missing marine, his name will be given out with the simple explanation "disappeared while on duty."

El Paso, Tex., June 23.—The removal of General Trevino, as Carranza's chief of staff and Ysidro Fabela, acting minister of foreign relations in the constitutional cabinet, reported from Saltillo, was taken by constitutionalists as a victory for the Villa faction. Both are said to have been opposed to Villa's southern campaign. Villa, however, insisted on continuing his advance towards Mexico City.

The prospective appointment of Eduardo Ray as chief of staff of the army was hailed as agreeable to the constitutionalist faction. Ray won his spurs in the Madero revolution.

Zapotlan Captured. Mazatlan, Mex., June 23.—The city of Zapotlan is reported captured by the constitutionalists here today. It is 90 miles south of Guadalupe and its capture is considered as meaning an early assault on the latter city.

Natura And Villa Confer. Cuernavaca, Mex., June 23.—General Natura, commanding the troops investing the city of Zapotlan, was expected here this afternoon for a conference with General Villa. How soon an attack of Villa's 30,000 troops can begin and how the assault will be conducted will be decided.

Official Mediation Off. (By Lawrence Todd, Staff Correspondent of the International News Service at Mediation Headquarters.) Niagara Falls, Ont., June 23.—Official mediation negotiations have ended for the present at least.

The envoys of Argentina, Brazil and Chile are ready to give way to simple negotiations of surrender by the Huerta government to the constitutionalists.

The plan of Minister Naon for settlement of the Mexican problem, as laid before the mediators, appears to be one of allowing the two factions in Mexico to settle their own differences by direct parleys.

These negotiations are to be held in Niagara Falls, the mediation conference taking a recess while the Federal and Constitutionalists are so engaged. This abdication of the official conference which has been in progress for the past five weeks has been made necessary by the refusal of General Carranza to declare an armistice and to consent to the discussion by outsiders of either the provisional government or any other internal problem of the republic.

Since the United States has refused to promise to compel the rebels to lay down their arms, in case of an agreement here upon a plan of pacification in Mexico, the mediators have thrown up their hands and agreed that the two warring camps must make their own terms.

The face of the mediation effort will be saved by a recess, which will be followed by a session of ratification of any peace which may be concluded by the representatives of the Huerta and Carranza governments. Reports from constitutionalist sources indicated today that the chief rebel

NEW FORM UPHOLD

Columbus, O., June 23.—In sustaining a demand for a petition which sought to end members of the civil service commission under the new city form of government, the supreme court held that the city form of government provided for by the new constitution supercedes the old form. The terms of the members of the old civil service commission in Dayton had not expired and they sought to prevent the new commission elected under the new charter form of government from replacing them, but failed.

BILLY'S BUTT-IN

I can't understand why the great mass of the people don't like hot weather. Why it's one of the greatest blessings we have. It not only makes the corn grow and expand into roasting ears but it acts everybody right with the law of existence. "Th' sweat of th' brow," says th' law, "is th' price of bread." Is a cunk if it wasn't for th' hot weather some folks would never taste th' price. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Unsettled tonight and Wednesday. Probably showers. Kentucky—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Continued warm.

SAFETY DEPENDS ON MAN.

Safety is wholly dependent upon the individual in the finality. All sorts of safety devices have been invented and placed in use for the protection of person and property, but they are all set at naught by the carelessness and recklessness of the man at the wheel. The collision of the airships in mid-air that snapped the lives of nine men was a species of carelessness and foolhardiness wholly chargeable to the operator of either one or the other of the craft. There was surely room in the skies for these man-birds to glide without any more danger than that primarily attached to the new order of transportation. The operators of these flying ships were trying to see how close they could come to each other, just like a small boy on skates sees how close he can come to an air-hole in the ice. There was absolutely no excuse for the catastrophe. Trains on the tracks collided head on when the agent had dispatcher's orders to stop one of the trains ready to hand to one of the engineers and the signal lever that took years of studiousness on the part of a mechanic to invent, was in hand's reach. These safety inventions doubtless have saved thousands of lives and they are a blessing to the people, but the facilities and forgetfulness of man prevents the full fruition of their purposes.

CORN ON THE COB.

These are the days when we have glad thoughts of what is really to store for us when the home grown succulent corn occupies the center of the menu. When one becomes interested in removing the stinging grains from the cob, all thought of the horror of his facial expression as well as the cares of life are forgotten in his ravenousness, and there is a dreaminess of appreciation of the kindly taste of the corn that is divine. We watch the tender shoots of the stalk with an anxious and longing eye and count the days when we can take our choice at ten per dozen. There is more real delight and substance in a good bait of roasting ears than there is in any other member of the menu family.

CO-OPERATION.

The manager of Dayton in discussing municipal problems truly says: "A city cannot prosper without the co-operation of the citizens thereof." A mayor and a council may do ever so well and conscientiously devote their time to the city's best interests, but if the people hold aloof and find fault, as they do in most places, that degree of perfection in government that is sought cannot be realized. If we would have a prosperous city, a healthful city and a beautiful city citizens must concern themselves about public matters and keep in touch with the chosen administration and be ready to proffer timely aid and suggestion.

THE PEACEMAKER.

It looks like this country is getting hopelessly entangled in the Mexican row. Having in the first place started out to purify or suppress Huerta, now we are compelled to take sides between Villa and Carranza while the old dictator laughs in his sleeve at our situation. The results of having us on a family row are well known to all, and the fun of events may find the peace-maker involved in a struggle with everyone of the combatants. There is no peace-maker but he has a hard road to travel to gain the honor.

Most people have missed, but they lose all taste for it when a band of fresh young men and girls gather around the musical instrument over the way and add to render what they call music, which is a cross between the rattle and a whistle of a heavy truck wagon and the squeal of the pig that got fastened under the fence. A bunch of these thoughtless youngsters can cause more unrest and indignation in a community than a row between the men.

An interesting paragraph says he will never be satisfied about the capital punishment of his good friend the master until a day or coming is set apart to demonstrate all the horrors in the neighborhood, especially those inclined to test their voices on the top round of the fence at a time when he seeks rest.

The effort to sidetrack the editor with the promise of a nomination for governor of New York has died a horrible death in the distinguished gentleman's ear and has been squashed down on it. It is the probability of nothing with him, his attention will not go into the acceptance of any honor but the highest.

There is one thing in which the present and the future are at odds and that is in the fact that the present is the future. The present is the future, and the future is the present. There is some pleasure in the present, and there is some pleasure in the future.

POLLY AND HER PALS

THE FOOLISH WOMEN.

The militants were received by the English Premier and he told them square out that he would not submit to their demands. Sylvia, dear, was not present and the committee did not use that device that women use in getting a hard-headed old man to think their way. Instead of going in and thanking him for the audience given, of how much they appreciated the favor and had known all along that he was the sweetest old fellow in the kingdom and was being misrepresented by a lot of folks seeking notoriety, they filed in with swords on their faces and demanded that he do this and then without delay or frills. The rebuff they received is just such a rebuff as is natural, the world over. The good woman who wants a new hat, a new suit or a vacation would never approach their fierce lord in such a foolish fashion. If these militants are so ignorant of the submissive side of man as that they had as well call in their propaganda and make effort to restore the home.

SLANDER CHARGE WAS DISMISSED

Owing to the failure of the prosecution to prove the case, the charge of slander against Harry Friedman was dismissed. Friedman was charged with having said that the late Mayor of New York was a "big game hunter" and that he was "a big game hunter" and that he was "a big game hunter". The charge was dismissed because the prosecution failed to prove the case.

Commencement Of The Boxwellites

The Boxwell Commencement exercises held in the Harrisonville M. E. church Saturday evening were an unqualified success. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the splendid program was nicely rendered and the attendance taxed the capacity of the church. The graduates were Catherine Hendrickson, Gertrude Minford and Thomas Addis. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Sampson Eckhart, superintendent of the New Boston schools.

Following this address Prof. L. O. Allen of the Harrisonville school, gave a good talk in which he reviewed the school work of the past year in an interesting manner. The Harrisonville choir furnished splendid music for the impressive exercises.

WERE OUT ON TIME

Mayor Adam Frick's new order directing saloon men to close their places and lock their doors promptly at 11:30, was complied with Monday night. Saloonkeepers saw to it that patrons began their cleaning earlier than usual and closed their cash registers and checked up accounts in time for themselves to be out of their rooms at the specified time.

Have Until June 25th

Saloon men have until June 25th in which to pay their taxes into the county treasury, a previous announcement that the time was up June 20th, being incorrect. Quite a number of the local saloonkeepers have not paid up as yet, but it is expected that all of them will have complied with the law by that time. The time is really up on May 20th, for thirty days' grace is allowed by the authorities.

PRES. CAPLES PREDICTS THE C. & O. WILL BE COMPLETED BY 1916

Columbus, Ohio, June 23.—Within the next few weeks contracts will be let by the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad for their new line from Portsmouth to Columbus.

Martin J. Caples, vice president of the C. & O., who has located his headquarters in Columbus in the Spahr building, returned from New York Monday.

It was said that the new line will be a coal-carrying road, with only a few passenger trains. From Columbus to the lakes the Hooking Valley will carry the coal. The C. & O. road now goes by way of Cincinnati. The Columbus line will save an extra haul of 100 miles.

Wife Asks Divorce, Charges Numerous

Extreme cruelty, gross neglect, painter, of 813 Court street. The of duty, and habitual drunkenness, defendant also prays for alimony. Mrs. M. J. Gartner, defendant, filed Tuesday morning her petition for divorce against her husband, Peter A. Gartner, in common pleas court, of or enjoining his property, in which Mattie J. Gartner asks for a legal separation from her husband, Peter A. Gartner, a day morning.

In her petition, Mrs. Gartner alleges that her husband has been guilty of extreme cruelty, in that he cursed and abused her, called her vile and obscene names, threatened her with bodily harm, and assaulted her. She also charges that he has wilfully neglected to provide her with the common necessities of life, though abundantly able to do so, and has been guilty of habitual drunkenness for the past three years.

The plaintiff also sets forth that her husband is the owner of all of lot No. 12 in the subdivision of Outlet No. 16 in Portsmouth, and also a part of the Poyntz subdivision of Outlet No. 16, where they have resided. She claims that unless restrained by the court, he will dispose of the property and appropriate the proceeds for his own use. The couple were married in Milwaukee, Wis., on May 15, 1888, and have two children, both of whom have attained their majority.

PRES. CAPLES PREDICTS THE C. & O. WILL BE COMPLETED BY 1916

Columbus, Ohio, June 23.—The new line will start from the Parsons yard southeast of the city and about one mile north of Valley Crossing where it joins the Hoeking Valley to enter Columbus over the Hoeking tracks.

It will parallel the Norfolk and Western to Waverly. From Waverly to the river two routes are proposed, one crossing to the west side of the Scioto and striking the Ohio river at Portsmouth. The other branches off to the east at Waverly, following Beaver Valley and crossing the Ohio at Sciotoville, eight miles from Portsmouth.

The new line will be a coal-carrying road, with only a few passenger trains. From Columbus to the lakes the Hoeking Valley will carry the coal. The C. & O. coal now goes by way of Cincinnati. The Columbus line will save an extra haul of 100 miles.

At the Columbus end the new line will start from the Parsons yard southeast of the city and about one mile north of Valley Crossing where it joins the Hoeking Valley to enter Columbus over the Hoeking tracks.

In the neighborhood of 200 business girls of the city will participate in a picnic to be held Tuesday evening at Millbrook park, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. The young ladies will leave the city for the park about 5:30 o'clock, and supper will be served on the park lawn immediately upon their arrival. The committee in charge reported Monday evening that 190 girls had signified their intention to attend, and this number will likely be increased when the time comes.

Hobo Is Almost Drowned In Ohio

Jack O'Brien, a hobo, caused considerable excitement among local fishermen when he came dangerously near drowning in the middle of the Ohio Monday evening.

O'Brien had tried to swim the river after Capt. Mitchell and Collector Bob Davis, of the ferry-boat Chesapeake, refused to carry him over without fare. O'Brien slipped around to the stern of the boat, undressed and concealed his clothes on board, then tried to beat the ferry to the other side. All went well until he got mid-stream. He became exhausted and cried for help. The ferry put out to rescue him, throwing out a line and the man was pulled on board and taken to the Kentucky side.

O'Brien just before had boasted of having covered a distance of five miles in salt water time and again with perfect ease. He claimed to be on his way to Dayton, Ohio, to take employment in that city.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

YOUNG BRIDE.
The first person is used. The note may be informal and brief, but full of sincere thanks for the gift and a desire to meet your husbands friends.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am going to entertain a little club to which I belong in the near future and would like for you to tell me what would be nice to serve for refreshments. We are only allowed to serve three things, including coffee.

CLUB WOMAN.
A very delightful request to serve during the warm weather consists of fruit punch, lettuce and nut sandwiches and straw-berry ice cream. Or instead of the cream serve dainty cakes.

Dear Dolly.—Please publish a recipe for a brown stain and something to remove it. I want to paint up for a special occasion. Don't think I want to use it all the time.

BROWNIE.
You can get brown grease paint for this purpose at almost any drug store, and to soften the tone you can apply a brown face powder. To remove the paint use cold cream.

Dear Dolly.—Please tell me how to clean a white felt hat.

MARGARET.
After brushing the hat well to get all the dust out of it, rub into the hat all the English black shoe polish the felt will hold. Brush it out when you have gone over it once, and rub in a second supply. Leave this on for two days, and then brush up the hat in a box, then brush out the powder. Be sure to get the best quality of English polish.

Dear Dolly.—Is it proper for a girl to ask a boy to come back again after he has called to see her?

BLACK EYES.
It would only be polite to ask him to come again. Don't be offensive about it.

My Page Dolly.—Wise. What would be a successful occupation for a boy to follow? I am 17 and want to learn some business or trade. Also, am I too young to keep company with a girl?

YOUNG HOPKINS.
There are a great many. I do not know what you are fitted for. Get acquainted with some good successful business man and tell him your hopes and ambitions and ask his advice. Also, my boy, put girls out of your head for the next five or six years if you really mean to be a successful man in the business or professional world.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am a poor working girl and can't afford to take the trips to the seashore like other girls. I will get a several weeks' vacation, but of course, I have to go out into the country and visit some of my country cousins. Can you suggest anything for me to do so that I can pass the time away. Of evenings there is nothing to do in the country but listen to the bullfrogs and crickets and I don't like to do that. What can I do to amuse myself?

WORKING GIRL.
You are lucky if you get country cousins to visit. A vacation spent in the country will do you more good than if you visited all the seaside resorts in the country. Just make up your mind that you are going to have a grand good time while you are in the country and you will be surprised how well you will like it out there. Eat all you can. Live out of doors. If under the trees, read, go horse-back riding, and if there is any water close by, you can pretend you are at the seashore and go in wading and bathing, and lounge around in the sand. If you go to bed at dark you won't hear the frogs croak, or the crickets sing.

Dear Dolly.—Would you kindly tell me how to clean a brown leather cushion which has an Indian chief on it that is painted in red and black? I want to know how to clean the Indian too.

SUBSCRIBER.
The easiest way to clean this would be to get the cleaning fluid for fur shoes that you can buy at almost any shoe shop. This will clean the whole cushion, Indian and all. Follow directions on the bottle. After the cushion is dry, take a piece of sand paper and go over the brown leather part lightly with this—that is if the cushion is made of soft leather. If it has a hard surface do not use the sand paper.

Dear Dolly.—In what person or how are wedding gifts acknowledged? I refer to those received from friends of the groom.

Adrian.—I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dresses I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so tired I would have to sit down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper floating around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said "Saved from the Grave," and told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done the work. I showed it to my husband and he said, "Why don't you try it?" So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, "I don't need any more," and he said "You need better take it a little longer anyway." So I took for three months and got well and strong. Mrs. ALMA H. HARRIS, 2 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich. Write Well Enough to Write.

HOW TO STOP HAIR TROUBLES

By JEAN CLAY

Beautiful and abundant hair is the result of daily combing and brushing, correct shampooing and the keeping of the scalp in a clean and healthy condition. Few, indeed, are the persons who have perfect hair, for nearly every one suffers from a too dry or too oily scalp, dandruff, brittle and falling hair, or faded and straggly locks. These hair troubles are not always caused by neglect; many often they are the result of untimely or misapplied effort. The following are simple home remedies which I can unhesitatingly recommend to anyone who has trouble with his or her hair.

TO MAKE HAIR GROW.—If you would have a wealth of hair that will be the envy of all your friends, try this. Get a little of what is known as barbaeen compound from your druggist, apply a little of it once a day for awhile and I miss no guess if you are not perfectly astounded with the results. This barbaeen compound, with the scalp in a circular motion, with no massage, and it will set the hair roots fairly tingling with new life and vigor. Nothing better has ever been found for such thin or falling hair, as it tends to nourish the hair and stimulate its growth in a natural manner. In most cases one may look for the new growth in about two weeks.

OVERCOMING DANDRUFF.—It takes more than brushing or washing to rid the hair of dandruff. This hair-killing parasite quickly reappears after the most strenuous shampoo. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it; then it is entirely destroyed. To do this just get about four ounces of plain common liquid arsenic from your druggist, apply it about twice a week, enough to moisten the scalp, rubbing it in gently with the fingertips. In the morning, moisten all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will entirely destroy every sign and trace of it.

A SLENDY SHAMPOO.—Much better than compound soap shampoos is ordinary mild liquid soap. Moisten the hair with water, then put on a few drops of the mild liquid oil at a time, rubbing the hair and scalp until a rich and searching lather is produced. One or two two-pennyfuls is sufficient for a shampoo. One beneficial quality of mild liquid soap is the quick and free way in which the lather washes out from the hair, taking with it all oil, grease and dirt. The shampoo can be used as frequently as desired, and it leaves the hair in a healthy, moist, wavy and easy to manage.

WHEN HAIR IS GRAY.—A few applications of orange-juice solution to all the gray spots will turn them into black. It is necessary to remove gray or faded hair to its natural color. The orange-juice solution on a soft hair brush, or moisten a sponge or piece of cloth with it, and draw through the hair, a strand at a time. The solution can be made by squeezing a few drops of orange-juice into a glass and adding a little water.

A pretty wedding, solemnized this morning at Holy Redeemer church, was that of Miss Genevieve Emma Montavon, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Montavon, and Mr. Maximilian Misch, of Cleveland. The impressive ring ceremony was held at eight o'clock, by Rev. J. E. McGuirk. The attendants were Miss Margaret Montavon and Mr. Thomas Montavon, sister and brother of the bride. The pretty bride wore a beautiful gown of juicy silk, made of banana fibre, and sent to the bride from the Philippines by her uncle, Mr. William Montavon. The bride wore a veil of tulle, caught to her hair with white sweet peas, and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. The dainty maid was attired in delicate green crepe de chine and chiffon, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. Mrs. Martin McMahon beautifully rendered a vocal solo, "O Promise Me." The ceremony was followed by an elegant breakfast at the home of the bride's parents on Fifth street, which was daintily served in several courses. The bride's table was a beauty with bride roses and ferns for the decorations. Covers were laid for the bride and groom, the attendants, Miss Margaret Montavon, Mr. Thomas Montavon, Rev. J. E. ## Denver Man Kicks On Billy Sunday

Denver, Colo., June 23.—The Sacred 36 of Denver society do not propose to stand for having Billy Sunday's meetings right in their midst if they can help it. They characterized the proposed revival as a nuisance.

Crawford Hill, whose wife is the acknowledged leader of the society, today filed with the city building commissioner a formal protest against the Sunday tabernacle. Hill lives across the street from where the tabernacle is to be built and he said the noise of the crowds would disturb the neighborhood and tramp on their lawns, and if they did not change the location he would get out an injunction preventing the construction of the tabernacle.

AMENDMENT OFFERED TO HOME RULE BILL

London, Eng., June 23.—The House in connection with the granting of Home Rule to Ireland offered another stage today when the Marquis of Crewe, Liberal leader in the House of Lords, introduced a bill to amend the Irish Home Rule bill. The terms of the amendment bill are identical with those introduced March 9 by Premier Asquith and contemptuously refused by Sir Edward Carson, the Irish Unionist leader, as "hypocritical sham."

By the new bill the parliamentary electors of each county in Ulster are to be allowed to decide by vote whether the county shall be excluded from the provision of the Home Rule bill for a period of six years from a meeting of the Irish parliament.

Judge Speer Will Not Be Impeached

Washington, June 23.—Judge Henry Speer, of the United States district court of Mecon, Ga., was severely arraigned today by the house judiciary committee for mismanaging his high office but he was spared an impeachment trial because the committee believed there was not sufficient evidence of wrong doing to convict him.

While I came in the recommendation in the majority report that no further proceedings be had upon the charges against Judge Speer I desire to

EFFECT OF THE RATE DECISION

Washington, June 23.—That the distribution throughout the country of the benefits of the Panama Canal will rest with the inter-state commerce commission, and not with the trans-continental railroads is one of the conclusions being drawn today from the supreme court's decision in the inter-mountain rate cases, in which, after nearly two years of consideration, the court upheld the order of the commerce commission by unanimous consent. It has been claimed that it would reduce freight rates from Atlantic seaboard points to Pacific coast cities and vice versa.

But the question as to what extent the railroads might allow inter-points to share in the benefits of water competition enjoyed by the seaboard cities were in dispute. The decision is that the commission will answer those problems and that the railroads may simply proceed to haul freight.

Washington, June 23.—With the Supreme court decision sustaining the inter-mountain rate orders, the way is open for shippers to recover sums estimated as great as $10,000,000 from railroads which have been charging the old rates while the case was being fought through the courts. Reparations, if any, and amounts will have to be decided by the commission in a separate action.

Cause Of Upset

It was not the riding of water but too much roasting of the boat that caused a canoe occupied by Joe Kerrigan and Otto Vetter to upset Saturday, causing Vetter to have a narrow escape from drowning. According to Kerrigan who is the proud possessor of the craft, an occupant of the boat decided to take a dive. In doing it he tipped the boat and the dip caused it to overturn. Both Kerrigan and Vetter were completely dressed and unprepared for a sudden plunge into the Ohio. This state of affairs made it difficult to swim and return to the boat.

May Have To Spend Year In Workhouse

Unless some Good Samaritan appears to make good the amount of his fines, Charles Henderson, a young Carolina negro, who came to Portsmouth about three years ago, will spend the balance of the year 1914 in the Cincinnati workhouse. Henderson drew fines and costs aggregating over $250 on charges of assault, unlawfully cohabiting with one Agnes Williams, colored, and unlawfully trafficking in the sale of intoxicating liquor. The Williams woman was the chief witness against him in all of the cases.

Henderson was arrested late Monday evening on an affidavit charging him with assault, preferred by the Williams woman, a domestic in a Waller street home, who charged that he had threatened to kill her and otherwise mistreated her. While at the station Monday evening, she told the mayor about having lived with Henderson as man and wife for the past year on Tenth street, and also of having seen him sell intoxicating liquor to divers persons last Sunday afternoon. She turned over to the authorities two phials of liquor which she said Henderson had left over after his operations last Sunday.

Henderson pleaded not guilty to all of the charges, but the mayor held that the testimony of the Williams woman was sufficient in each instance, and assessed fines aggregating $225 and costs. In default of payment, he will be taken to the Cincinnati workhouse Wednesday morning.

Claims Agreement Was Not Carried Out

It failed to carry out, his part of an agreement to convey the title to two cottages on Campbell avenue, near Fifth, for a certain consideration, is charged against Dr. Arthur R. Moore, of Gallia street, in a petition filed in the court of common pleas late Monday afternoon by Attorneys Milner, Miller & Sager, representing Joseph Horzstam, head agent for the National Cash Register Company.

In his petition, Horzstam avers that he and the defendant entered into a written agreement, on June 20th last, a copy of which is attached to the petition, by the terms of which Dr. Moore was to convey the title to the two properties mentioned in return for $2,000 worth of stock in the Pure Drug Company, held by the plaintiff.

Horzstam further claims that on June 15th he made a demand upon the defendant for a conveyance of the properties, according to the terms mutually agreed upon, but that Dr. Moore refused to carry out his part of the agreement. Horzstam claims that the properties in question are no worth $5,000, and he asks the court to award them to him, or in the event that such procedure is not practical, to award him damages in the amount of $2,000.

MUST PAY TAXES BEFORE JULY 10

Owing to the fact that under the operation of the new Warner law, tax assessors will begin assessing property in February of next year, two months earlier than usual, County Treasurer M. J. Caldwell has set the time limit for paying taxes at July 10th, and property holders are urged to visit the office prior to that date. In many of the counties of the state, the county treasurers have closed their books for this year, and properties are being listed as delinquent where the taxes have not been paid, but Treasurer Caldwell is going to give the property holders of this county as much time as possible.

Treasurer Caldwell stated Tuesday morning that this was the last year in which such leniency could be shown, as beginning next year the state officials will insist that all books be closed not later than June 20th.

THE ETERNAL QUEST

There has been a great deal said about the cures being made by the Bi-Chemie Doctors, with one of their institutes located in Portsmouth, and among some physicians, as to the cures made of certain diseases formerly supposed to be incurable.

It was once believed by physicians that surgery offered the only hope in many cases which the Bi-Chemie Doctors claim to cure by means of their new system of medicine. The trouble with some of these "knife-cured" men is that they have allowed their thoughts to lead them into a rut. The science of surgery is a wonderful science. Many of the practitioners are able men, who to chief mission in life is to lessen human suffering and save. They have allowed themselves to be misled by an over enthusiastic idea to cut, for almost every chronic ailment. This is wrong and has created a feeling of fear among the people at being operated upon at all. The trouble with many surgical operations is, they leave the sufferer in a really worse condition than before. Adhesions take place, which has resulted in a state of half invalidism in the case of not a few men and women who have gone under the knife.

The treatment used by the Bi-Chemie Doctors is non-surgical. They have perfected a system of treatment which actually does cure permanently hundreds of cases of chronic appendicitis, gallstones, gonorrhea, asthma, liver disease, heart disease, and other diseases hitherto supposed to be only possible by means of the knife. In many complicated, deep-seated, chronic ailments, the new Bi-Chemie system of medicine has become a sort of a "crusade" of last resort. The people have learned that all those who go to these great specialists, oftentimes means a cure for them and they appreciate it. As evidenced by many testimonial letters similar to the following:

Laurens, Mich., Jan. 14, '12. To All Chronic Sufferers—

For more than a year I had suffered from catarrh of the head and stomach. I had taken patent medicines and treatments from three of the best doctors, but I did not derive any benefit therefrom. The odor arising from my head often made me sick at my stomach. I had no appetite, was losing weight, and often had to resort to sleeping powders in order to get rest at night. This was my condition when I consulted the Bi-Chemie Doctors.

Mr. Rouss, the specialist in charge of the Portsmouth Institute, told me what my disease was, and assured me of a cure if I would go under their care at once. Well, I placed my case with the Bi-Chemie Doctors, and now, after three months' treatment, I am almost completely cured. I have found much failure and expense, before going to these specialists, and getting the treatment which has enabled me to regain my health.

I thank the Bi-Chemie Doctors, and wish to voice my gratitude for all they did for me. I wish also to recommend any chronic sufferer to them and will say that all will and the Bi-Chemie Doctors honor, skillful and easy to meet at all times.

Respectfully,
(Signed) MRS. A. ELLIOT,

What Thin Folks Should Do To Gain Weight

Physician's Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs who, having tried advertised food-mixers, food-tablets, physical culture, and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long thinness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered regenerative force makes fat grow after years of thinness, and it also is equipped for repairing the waste of stomach or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable discovery is called Sunol. Six strengthening, fat-producing elements of science combined in this powerful preparation, which is endorsed by eminent physicians and used by prominent people everywhere, it is absolutely harmless, efficacious and efficient.

A month's systematic use of Sunol would produce flesh and strength by correcting faulty digestion and by supplying highly concentrated fats to the blood. Increased nourishment in the blood from the food, Sunol, and the additional fact that this people need are evidence of a new supply of energy and that in a large demand for it.

GREAT BARITONE AND VIOLINIST ARE COMING

A big man comes to the stage, ers. His world consists of his violin and himself. The people hold their breath to catch every note of the strings. His bow brings out great tones and his fingers glide up to the highest notes. His violin sings, weeps, laughs and sighs with a soul that he has breathed into it during these many years. He plays a great many of his own compositions, and during all the time he plays he is simply talking through the strings.

The Kickbush-Renter company is to be one of the many musical attractions on the seven-day Chautauqua program here July 2.

Churches To Close 'Chautauqua' Night

The Ministerial Association, in order to close their churches for a little business, into their second outing of the season, which was held Monday in Millbrook park. The ministers passed a resolution to keep their churches closed on Sunday evening, July 5, on account of the Chautauqua, which will be in full swing on this date.

The resolution does not make it compulsory for the ministers to close their houses of worship on this Sunday, and they can hold their usual services if they so desire. It was stated Tuesday that perhaps not a single minister will dissent from the resolution.

Monday's outing was in every way a most delightful success. A bucket dinner was the distinct feature. Rev. Freeman W. Chase, who was chairman of the committee, indignantly admitted Tuesday that the dinner was a good thing that the 25 ministers, who surrounded the festival ground, which was a nice grassy spot near the Casino, did not conclude until half past nine. Then all the ministers went to the ball game and stayed until the Portsmouth team had been defeated to hold a series of athletic events, but this feature of the day's festivities was called off, owing to the intense heat. At 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon, the ministers ate their supper, and an hour later returned to the city.

Following the bucket dinner, the ministers and their wives held a social session and talked over various affairs that are of interest to the public, and many good suggestions were made.

FIRST MOTHER IN THIS COUNTY TO GET AID UNDER MOTHERS' PENSION LAW

To Mrs. Minnie Baker, of 2325 Ninth street, belongs the distinction of being the first mother in Scioto county to receive an allowance under the Mothers' Pension Law, enacted by the recent state legislature and put into operation in Scioto county Tuesday morning. Mrs. Baker, who is the mother of five minor children, was paid $10 out of the county treasury Tuesday morning upon a warrant properly certified from the juvenile court, and she will receive that amount monthly from now on, unless the court orders otherwise. Mrs. Baker is the widow of James Baker, and conducts a boarding house in the East End.

Mrs. Corolla Foster, of 702 Sixth street, widow of Ora Foster, who died April 11th, 1911, and mother of three minor children, was also awarded $5 per month pension by Juvenile Judge Beatty, and her first monthly allowance was paid to her Tuesday morning.

Others who have made applications for allowances from the Mothers' Pension Fund, and whose cases are now being investigated are: Mrs. Fannie Feigley, of 2013 Gallia street, widow of William Feigley, an inmate of the Athens asylum for the insane, and mother of five children; and Ella Liston, of Otway, widow of Homer Liston, who died June 2nd, 1914, leaving two children fatherless. Other applications are expected to be filed from time to time.

It is generally conceded all over the state that the Mothers' Pension Law is one of the most humanitarian pieces of legislation ever enacted, and its practical application is expected to result in much good over the state. There is no question but that it will be an encouragement to right living among indigent mothers, and make it possible for fatherless children to secure an education in the public schools, that would otherwise be denied them.

The law empowers the judge of the juvenile court to certify any mother who has been left a widow, or been abandoned by her husband, for a pension, the maximum amount of which is $15 per month for the oldest child under 14 years, and $7 per month for every child under that age. To the discretion of the juvenile judge is left the amount that is allowed the applicant. The physical condition of the applicant, her ability to contribute to the support of her children, and the amount of personal property belonging to her is also expected to influence the court in fixing the amount.

The law further provides that every case must be personally investigated by the juvenile court, no matter how many recommendations from responsible people accompany the application. The investigation in Scioto county will be conducted by Judge Beatty and his probation officer, Judge Harry Ball. The law is far-reaching and delegates full power to the juvenile court to determine the mothers whose applications should be granted and the amounts allowed. To make the fund necessary to carry out the provisions of the law, a levy of one tenth of a mill on all taxable property was fixed by the legislature, out of which fund an initial $100,000 was raised. To be favorably considered, the applicant must show that she is a good, virtuous woman, and worthy of being entrusted with the care and custody of her children.

Boys Are Paroled

The boys have been sent to the homes of their parents in this city. The former is the son of W. A. Holmes, of 627 R. and street, while young Younger is the son of Mrs. William Younger, of 1531 Ninth street.

E. C. DONNALLY,
River Observer.

The Ohio continues slowly falling and with no rain in sight navigation should be completely suspended ere long. The stage here Tuesday morning was 3.5 ft. The packet Greenwood is now running only as far as Portsmouth and will turn back to Cincinnati this evening. The packet Greenleaf will be up at 5 a. m. Wednesday for Huntington and Pomeroy. The steamer Day Queen will leave for Huntington at 3 p. m. and the steamer Klondike for Rome at 2 p. m.

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—Rivermen viewed considerable interest in a report received from Memphis, Tenn., announcing the formation of a corporation composed of Pittsburgh and Chicago capitalists for the construction of specially planned passenger steamers to be employed on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. The proposed boats are to be sidewheelers, double-decked, flat bottomed and of the style of the Hudson river boats. They will be fast and large enough to accommodate from 250 to 300 passengers.

The pilothouse will be on the hurricane deck, but placed more to the front of the cabins, as is the custom now. There will be one smokestack, about the middle of the craft. The plans call for hull, supports and cabin of short steel, with asbestos sidings and all the latest safeguards that will make the boats fireproof and unsinkable. The first two boats of the fleet, it is asserted, will be ready for service in the spring of 1915.

Washington, June 23.—The pension bureau notified Representative W. J. Fields that it has granted pension with back pay to Melissa J. Fuller, of Buchanan, Ky., and Lizzie J. Mohr, of Vanceburg, Ky.
